Other eligibility requirements

To be eligible for Default insurance with Australian Ethical Super you must meet all of the following criteria:

- you are a member of Australian Ethical Super
- you are receiving cover for the first time with us and you have not previously cancelled cover in your Australian Ethical Super account
- you are aged 25 or over and under 65
- you have had an account balance of at least $6,000
- your account is not inactive, where inactive means that you have not received any contributions or rollovers into your account for 16 months or more while you've been a member (however, if you've been a member with Australian Ethical Super for less than 16 months, this condition does not apply to you).

What are your options?

Keep your cover

Our Default Cover is aged -based, which means the amount of cover you receive and the cost typically changes with your age.

It may be a good idea to review your cover when your circumstances or financial obligations change - for example, if you get married or buy a property.

Cancel your cover anytime

You can cancel your Death and TPD cover anytime. If you do, you or your beneficiaries may not be able to make a claim if something happens to you after you cancelled your cover. Please note: If you cancel your Death Cover, you are also cancelling your TPD cover as we do not offer standalone TPD cover.

If you cancel, we will stop deducting premiums from your account. If you want cover in the future, you'll have to apply and be assessed by our Insurer.

Change your cover anytime

You have the option to apply to increase, decrease or fix your cover.

You also have the option to transfer your cover from another super fund.
