Total returns are calculated using the sell (exit) price, net of management fees and gross of tax as if distributions of income have been reinvested at the actual distribution reinvestment price. The actual returns received by an investor will depend on the timing, buy and exit prices of individual transactions. Return of capital and the performance of your investment in the fund are not guaranteed. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance. Figures showing a period of less than one year have not been adjusted to show an annual total return. Figures for periods of greater than one year are on a per annum compound basis. The current benchmark may not have been the benchmark over all periods shown in the above chart and tables. The calculation of the benchmark performance links the performance of previous benchmarks and the current benchmark over the relevant time periods.

Commentary

Over the March quarter the Australian Ethical Income Fund return was 0.04% after fees, (0.09% gross), 0.09% ahead of the flat result for the benchmark Bloomberg Ausbond Bank Bills Index at 0.00%.

The outperformance owes to the fund's higher yield to maturity than the bank bills, with the fund currently holding half its assets in State and Commonwealth Government Bonds for liquidity purposes, a quarter invested across Bank Senior Unsecured Bonds, and the remaining quarter in Term Deposits, Corporate Credit, Mortgage Backed and other Asset Backed Securities.

With the fund maintaining a short duration position, and the Reserve Bank maintaining the policy of Yield Curve Control out to 3 years, the Income Fund did not see the 3%+ decline experienced in our longer duration Fixed Interest product.

In the near term, the outlook for short term money markets remains one of subdued returns, with near-zero bank bill rates reflecting the abundance of available liquidity in the market. While maintaining a book of high-quality liquid assets with short average duration, the Fund will continue to augment holdings with other credit exposures.
